Charles W. Brandyberry Hanover Stone Partners, LLC

Charles (Chuck) W. Brandyberry has 38 years of experience in risk consulting, insurance brokering, and risk management, with specialty expertise in captives, reinsurance, global programs, corporate litigation, and arbitration.

In 2009, Chuck joined Hanover Stone Partners as an Associate. He has been an independent consultant for numerous companies since 2002 as a licensed Surplus Lines Broker and Property and Casualty Producer. From 2000 to 2002, Chuck served as a Senior Consultant for Bird & Associates, LLC providing his expert guidance to Fortune 500 companies, brokers, and consultants. For more than 18 years, Chuck was at Johnson & Higgins (J&H), which merged with Marsh during his tenure. At J&H/Marsh, he was Senior Vice President and Principal; Manager – Global Captive Reinsurance Group; Member of the J&H Global Property and International Practice Committee; and Chief Executive and Director – Uniservice Insurance, Ltd and GEM Insurance Company, Ltd in Bermuda. His responsibilities at J&H/Marsh included supervising reinsurance contract negotiations on treaties and client programs; coordinating financial activities among markets, reinsurers, captives, and various captive management companies; and advising numerous major multinational clients on their global programs. After serving as a Senior Vice President in the Global Broking division of Marsh USA from 1997 to 1999, he became a Consultant for the company, specializing in global reinsurance, captive programs, and risk management administration. In this capacity he provided oversight of the company's Global Property Program captive operations and the strategic implementation of its Global Captive Programs. From 1989 to 1994, Chuck was an outside Director at Halton Reinsurance Company Limited. His prior experience was as a Manager of International Development at American Risk Management Group, and Risk Manager at Rockwell International.

Chuck earned his Associate in Science degree in electronic engineering from Chaffey College, Alta Loma, CA; BS degree in Business Administration (Finance, Real Estate & Insurance) from California State Polytechnic University, Pomona, CA; and has done MBA coursework in management and finance at the University of Southern California, Los Angeles, CA. In addition, he holds a Home Office School Diploma from the Insurance Company of North America, and a Foreign Credit Insurance & Trade certificate from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. For nine years he has been a guest instructor for the College of Insurance graduate classes teaching about captives and alternate markets, as well as an instructor for the insurance continuing education programs of Marsh USA and Johnson & Higgins.
