

Hanover Stone Partners, LLC

Where Experience, Expertise and Enthusiasm collaborate

Thomas A. Caldwell, Jr., ARM, CPCU Hanover Stone Partners, LLC

Thomas A. Caldwell, Jr. joined Hanover Stone Partners, LLC as an Associate in 2010. Tom brings 40 years of diversified experience as an insurance broker, consultant, and risk manager to Hanover Stone Partners. He has extensive expertise in the global chemical and pharmaceutical industries.

Since 2001 Tom has been an independent insurance and risk management consultant as the owner of TAC Insurance Consulting, LLC. In this capacity, he has worked with the Department of Homeland Security since 2004 regarding risk and insurance qualifications under the Safety Act for the development and sale of new anti-terrorism technologies. He has also been a consultant and expert witness on multiple insurance coverage arbitration cases for Covington & Burling in Washington, D.C., and Jenner & Block in Chicago, including products liability coverage litigation involving Eli Lilly & Company, Merck's Vioxx drug, and litigation regarding coverage for hurricane damage.

During 2001, he was a consultant and risk manager for Syngenta Corporation, the world's largest agricultural chemical company, where he designed and implemented a new risk management program in the U.S., including the establishment of an insurance budget and all operating procedures. From 1988 to 2000, Tom served as Senior Vice President and Global Practice Leader for the Chemical and Pharmaceutical industries at Marsh Inc. Between 1996 and 1998, Tom served as Senior Vice President at Sedgwick, Inc., responsible for developing risk management programs for Fortune 500 companies with an emphasis in the chemical and pharmaceutical industries. Prior to Sedgwick, Tom was Senior Vice President and practice leader for the chemical and pharmaceutical industries at Alexander & Alexander. He had previously spent 15 years with American Cyanamid Company, a Fortune 100 chemical and pharmaceutical company, as Director of Risk Management responsible for all aspects of the global risk management program, including the management of the company's Bermuda and Vermont captives. Tom began his career serving 11 years with the Philadelphia Electric Company as Assistant Insurance Manager responsible for all aspects of the company's risk management program, and then three years with Monsanto Company as the Assistant Risk Manager responsible for the company's U.S. risk management program, including the management of a Bermuda captive insurance company.

He earned his BS in Business Administration at Temple University, and holds the Associate in Risk Management (ARM), and Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) designations. Tom is Past Chairman of the Chemical and Drug Insurance Groups, and has served on the Board of Directors of XL Capital, XL Europe, Hopewell Reinsurance Company, United Insurance Company, Delta Holdings Insurance Company, and Universal Reinsurance Company.