

R. Craig Sutherland, Jr.
Hanover Stone Partners, LLC

Craig Sutherland joined Hanover Stone Partners, LLC, as an Associate in 2010.

Craig is concurrently President of the James F. Hurley Insurance Agency Corporation, which he joined in late 2006. Hurley Insurance provides property, casualty, life and employee benefits insurance and risk management services for a vast array of business, municipal and personal clients.

Prior to joining Hurley Insurance, Craig spent 26 years with Willis of New York, Inc., a subsidiary of Willis Group Holdings. He began his career in the claims department of a major insurance company before joining Corroon & Black, a predecessor company to what is now Willis of New York, Inc. At Willis, he most recently served as Executive Vice President, Sr. Client Advocate and member of the Executive Management Committee, and managed a significant book of multinational clients across many industry segments.

Craig is a graduate of Northeastern University.
